Augusta University

The screenshot shows the Scholarly Commons @Augusta University website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Augusta University logo and the text "University Libraries". To the right of the logo are links for "Communities & Collections", "Browse the Repository", and "Statistics". Below the navigation bar is a dark blue header with the title "Scholarly Commons @Augusta University". Underneath the title is a paragraph of text: "Scholarly Commons is Augusta University's institutional repository and aims to preserve and distribute scholarly legacy institutions. Scholarly Commons is managed by the Augusta University Libraries. For more information a contact the following: Whitney Russell, Open Scholarship Librarian, at wrussell@augusta.edu or Jennifer Davi...". Below this text are two prominent buttons: a blue one labeled "Submit to the repository" and a green one labeled "Submit to the AU Teaching Commons". Below the buttons is a search bar with the placeholder text "Search the repository ...". To the left of the search bar is a "Discover" section with a list of authors and their respective item counts: Baker, Toni (611), Deriso, Christine Hurley (519), Walls, Sharron C. (126), Medical College of Georgia (124), and Gladden, Ellen (101). There is a "Show more" link below the list. To the right of the search bar is a "Communities" section with a "Project Goals" button. Below the "Communities" title is the text "Select a community to browse its collections." and "Now showing 1 - 5 of 14". Below this are two community names: "Administrative Units" and "AU COVID-19 Research and Scholarship". The website interface is shown as a stack of overlapping windows.
